++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Fine and dry for the bank holiday weekend.

Today:
A bright start to the day, patches of cloud pushing in from the east, leading to a cloudier afternoon but plenty of sunny spells. Remaining dry and feeling warm in the sun. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Some cloud lingering into the evening but a fine end to the day. Cloud clearing leaving a largely clear night, feeling cool. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Saturday:
A largely fine and dry morning but some patches of cloud moving in from the east in the afternoon, clearing again by the evening. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Staying dry and fine throughout the period. Sunny spells at times. Breezy around the coast, and the onshore breeze will peg temperatures back a little.
